

David Lindemann, Permanent Secretary
Head of Saarland's State Chancellery
Authorised Representative for Europe-related Affairs

Personal Information

- Born: 19 December 1977 in Saarbrücken
- Roman Catholic
- divorced

Personal Information

- 1988 to 1997 Saarpfalz-Gymnasium in Homburg/Saar, Abitur (German university entrance qualification)
- 1998 to 2003 Studied law at Saarland University
First State Examination in Law
- 2003 to 2005 Legal training at Saarland's Higher Regional Court in Saarbrücken
Second State Examination in Law

Professional Career

- 2006 Lawyer at the Federal Employment Office in Saarbrücken
- 2007 to 2009 Representative at the Office for Europe-related Affairs of the German District Council in Brussels
- 2009 to 2014 Representative at the Rhineland-Palatinate Representation in Brussels
- 2014 Parliamentary Group's Deputy Manager and Personal Representative of the Parliamentary Group Chairman of the SPD Landtag Group for Rhineland-Palatinate
- 2015 to 2016 Manager of the SPD Landtag Group for Saarland
- 2016 to 2017 Head of the Minister's Office and Deputy Head of the Department for Fundamental Questions, Planning, Communication at the Ministry of Economic Affairs, Employment, Energy and Transport of Saarland
- 2017 to 2022 Head of the Department for Fundamental Questions, Planning, Communication and Deputy Permanent Secretary at the Ministry of Economic Affairs, Employment, Energy and Transport of Saarland

Memberships and Volunteering (Selected)

- Vice President of Saarland Football Association SFV e.V.
- Supervisory Board of Lebenshilfe Saarpfalz gGmbH (an association helping people with mental disabilities)
- Member of the circle of friends of the Siebenpfeiffer Foundation (a foundation for historic research)
- Member of Tafel Homburg e.V. (an association providing food to those who cannot afford it)
- Member of AWO Homburg (an association for workers' welfare)